Written by an Attorney and Former Self Represented Litigant

I have an LLM in trial advocacy, 31 years of experience as a litigation attorney, and am a parents' rights advocate and founder of The Law Center YouTube channel (helping self-represented litigants in family court). I am a former self represented litigant in family court, mock trial teacher, and volunteer attorney for Philadelphia Family Court Self-Help Center. I believe that family court is broken and there's a better way to help families in custody court than with the inefficient, traditional legal services.
